

BONNEVILLE
INTERNATIONAL

Board of Directors

Rodney H. Brady

Dr. Rodney H. Brady is a widely known and respected business, education, and government executive. He received Bachelor of Science and MBA Degrees from the University of Utah and a Doctor of Business Administration Degree from Harvard University.

In his professional career he has served in top management positions for several major corporations. He has served as a member of the Sub-cabinet of the President of the United States and as Assistant Secretary for Administration and Management of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare (1970-72), as President of Weber State University (1978-85), as President and CEO of Bonneville International Corporation (1985-96), and currently serves as President and CEO of Deseret Management Corporation, a large corporate holding company that includes Bonneville. He also serves as the Chairman of the Board of Deseret Mutual Benefit Administrators (DMBA).

Throughout his career he has served on numerous industry and corporate boards in the fields of broadcasting and communications, pharmaceuticals, banking, employee benefits, youth development, executive training, and management consulting.

Dr. Brady has taken a leadership role in chairing many national and local civic and community organizations, including the President's Sub-Cabinet Executive Officers Group, U.S. Secretary of Education's Committee on Accreditation, National Legal Center for the Public Interest, Mountain West and Big Sky Athletic Conferences, Utah Governor's Blue Ribbon Commission on Tax Recodification, University of Utah National Advisory Council and the University of Utah Eccles School of Business.

He has served as a national volunteer leader of the Boy Scouts of America for more than 30 years and has received Scouting's highest local, regional, and national honors.

Dr. Brady was born and raised in Sandy, Utah. He is married to Carolyn "Mitzi" Hansen, who is a graduate of the University of Utah with Bachelor and Masters Degrees. They are the parents of three sons.